Try These Playful Ideas

Sound Detective

Go on a hunt around the house for your target word or sound. How many can you spot together?

Silly Story Time

Read a favorite book and pause so your child can fill in the word, sound, or what happens next.

Sneak It Into Play

Weave a little practice into snack time, bath time, and car rides. Just a few minutes counts!

Our Practice Plan

A space for your therapist to jot down this week's activities

A gentle note for grown-ups

Short and playful beats long and stressful. A few relaxed minutes a day, woven into things you already do, makes a real difference. Follow your child's lead, keep it fun, and celebrate every try. You've got this!
